

Refereed papers

Towards Sustainability: Issues in On-line Education and Training in the Australian VET Sector Sue Bennett, Barry Harper, John Hedberg and Lori Lockyer

From Print Materials to Online Learning: Bridging the Generation Gap Robyn Benson

S = (F + I) x C or Sustainability Equals (Flexibility Plus Innovation) Multiplied by Creativity
Jane Conway and Ron Sharkey

The Quest to Educate the Knowledge Worker of the Future: Integrating High-tech and High-touch Learning in Marketing Education Judy Drennan, Rebekah Bennett and Trish Andrews

Lifelong Learning and Learning Online Darryl Dymock

Creating New Educational Structures and Processes for Off-shore Distance Education Terry Evans and Karen Tregenza

The Lone Ranger and the Black Ford: Introducing a New Technology in a Print-based Distance Education Environment Japie Heydenrych

Teaching Tertiary Chemistry by Distance Education: Where We're At and Where We're Going Rowan Hollingworth and Catherine McLoughlin

Constructivism at a Distance – Planting Melting Moments in the Teaching Text A. D. (Tony) McKenzie

Teamwork in Distance Learning: Designing for Collaborative and Social Interdependence
Catherine McLoughlin

Maintaining Teacher-Student Relationships in Distance Education Schooling Kathryn Moyle

Instructional Design for Online Courseware for Vocational Education and Training Barry Reeves

Towards a Strategic Use of Computer Mediated Communication to Support Flexible Learning in the Workplace Peter J Smith¹ and Eugene Sadler-Smith²

Investigating Distance Adult Students' Learning Outcomes through the Integration of Computer Conferencing into Distance Education Practices in Thailand Chinawong Sringam, Alan Barnes and Gregory C R Yates

The Case for Community: On-line and Ongoing Professional Support for Communities of Practice Bronwyn Stuckey, Lori Lockyer and John Hedberg